

_____ Lit Title: _____ Year: _____

Author's Name: _____ of (nationality) _____

Author's Occupation: _____

In order to decipher the Point-of-View (POV) of this document's author, consider the following:

Q1 What is the subject of this literature? The subject of this literature is... _____

_____
_____

Q2 Why did the author write this literature? This literature was written... _____

_____
_____

Q3 How might the author's nationality or occupation have influenced their opinion? _____

_____
_____

Q4 Who was the author's intended audience? _____

_____
_____

Q5 What might the author have exaggerated to make his/her point stronger, and why?

threats: _____

benefits: _____

Complete the following P.O.V. skeleton paragraph:

As a(n) _____, _____'s POV is (Nationality - Occupation) (Name)

biased because he/she sought to... _____

_____
_____

Thus, this document is NOT reliable because, in order to make his/her point, the author likely exaggerated the (threat of / benefit of)... _____

_____
_____